

A|CLUB 2ND ANNIVERSARY AT SOFITEL SEMINYAK BALI

Bali, September 2010 – Joining the euphoria of the second A|Club Anniversary celebration, Sofitel Seminyak Bali held 'A|Magnifique 2nd Anniversary' cocktail party at the Royal Villa. Decorated with traditional Balinese ornaments, the A|Club Ambassadors has brought A|Balinese Village ambience into the venue.

The cocktail started on 6 pm and guests were welcomed by Rindik music, a traditional bamboo instrument. Special cocktails and traditional canapés were passed around for the members to enjoy. Beautifully dressed in Balinese costume; the MC welcomed all the members and officially opened the event. Unlike the 1st anniversary, the most special thing on this event was the birthday cake. It made from kue kukus arrangement, which is traditional sponge cakes normally use for offering.

Mr. Stephane Bryer, the General Manager of the hotel, leded the candles blowing, joined by all members. On his speech, Mr. Bryer shared information about history and programs of A|Club. He also invited all members to enjoy a complimentary bottle of wine if they dine at Husk Restaurant, Capris Beachfront Restaurant or Teppanyaki Restaurant that night.

Enliven the night, four beautiful Joged Bumbung dancers marched down among the members and invited them to dance along. Joged Bumbung is an ancient traditional social dance which usually performed in a village during special occasions or celebrations.

Bringing up the Balinese Village theme, all invitees were requested to add a Balinese touch on their costumes and the winner of the best costume were happily brought back a voucher of 1 hour treatment at Le Spa and one bag of complete Sofitel souvenir range.
